ST. ANDREW'S IN THE PINES EPISCOPAL CHURCH

July 2008

The Rector's Remarks Wes Shields

First of all I want to thank you all for allowing us to be gone on our lengthy vacation and also thanks to everyone who has at least acted glad to have us back. We had a wonderful time with our families and in Florida, but it's good to be back in Pinedale.

Since I have a great deal of recent experience with the subject I wanted to write about the importance of leisure time. Even Jesus took breaks from his work. He went up on the mountain, sometimes with friends and

Senior Warden's Report Roz Leslie

Hey Everyone! By the time you read this newsletter, I should be on my way back to Pinedale, just in time for the ECW pie sale. It's going to take many hands to make the work load light and hopefully fun! So blow the dust off of those food processors, bring some large mixing bowls, mixing spoons, measuring spoons and cups and meet us at Callaghan Cabinets on Thursday, July 10 and Friday, July 11, 2008. On Thursday, we'll be making pie crusts and baking the one-crust pies and on Friday, we'll be baking the fruit pies. Stay tuned for the times...

Peace and Blessings,

sometimes alone, to be refreshed and to reconnect with God and himself. Obviously we all have things that have to get done, but sometimes our work can take over our lives and become the focal point of much of our time and energy. For some of us the business of life in general, or our children's schedules can become overwhelming and just trying to get through it all becomes the goal. No offense to any of you who find yourselves in that situation, but that is a pretty pitiful goal for this one life God has given us.

How many of you have ever sat around and reminisced with parents or grandparents and heard them talk about their memories? I have never heard them say, remember how stressed and busy we were back in the spring of 55, boy that was good times. They talk about memories of being together, either on vacation, or just around the house. They talk about times of relaxation, when everyone was relaxed enough to truly enjoy one another, they talk about walks in the woods, or day trips to see a monument or mountain peak. I have never seen a headstone in a graveyard that says "I wish I would have spent more time at work".

My point is this. Work enough to meet your needs, but make sure that work doesn't become your life. Take time to make memories, to play, to laugh, to love.

HR CAMP

It is never too late to sign up for HR Camp. There is a camp for everyone and if you need help with registration fees the church can help with scholarships. ## Junior Warden's Report, Jon Boroff

The work to separate the utilities at the nursery has been completed. Allen Agency has been given the job of finding and dealing with a new renter there and I'm told have someone ready to move in.

In the Church the water that was getting into the kitchen area turned out to be from a couple of leaks in the plumbing which have been repaired but we will need to repair and repaint the kitchen walls. Is anyone good at sheetrock repair and painting??

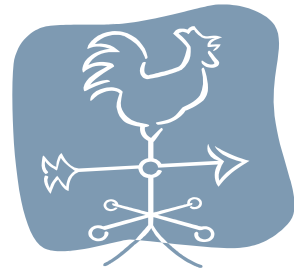

We had a church clean up day and got a lot done. Thanks to Cody Saxton who ran the rug doctor over the upstairs carpets, Elizabeth Miller, Joselyn Moore, and Sheryl Boroff cleaned the bathrooms, kitchens, windows vacuumed the downstairs carpets.

I also want to give a big thanks to Cheryl Essington for keeping everything organized and running.

ECW, Jocelyn Moore

ECW'S FINEST BAKE ECW'S FINEST!

Reminding all ECW ladies to "save the date"! Yes, we're conducting our annual ECW Pie Sale and Fundraiser once again during the 2008 Sublette County Rendezvous! And ladies, we're counting on you to help prepare the "fixins" on Weds, July 9th, assemble pies on Thursday, July 10th, bake pies on Friday, July 11th and conduct the Pie Sale Saturday morning, July 12th prior to the Rendezvous Parade! Whether you can help with all the components or just one or two, your assistance will be greatly appreciated. Income from the ECW Pie Sale is used to support our Mission and Outreach Projects as well as provide coffee for church get togethers and pay for expenses such as the commercial storage unit and garbage pickup. PLUS, our very own Roz Leslie is making a special trip back to Pinedale to spearhead the ECW Pie Event. So, mark the dates of July 9th through 12th on your
